Cartoonists from the United States and abroad take a critical look at President George W. Bush, his family, the policies and events of his administration, and the leading figures on his team.

"The book focuses on three areas of EU activity: regional policy, trans-European networks, and state aids to industry, and it challenges some assumptions about cohesion: for example, that regional policy is a form of redistribution of wealth from richer to poorer areas. It argues that cohesion, rather than being an objective in its own right, has been systematically redefined as a tool of
