I Like Myself! (Wanda Gág Read Aloud Book Award winner, 2005) is a children's book that displays a little girl who likes herself, just as she is, for things that would be considered unconventional (wild hair and beaver teeth). Children will love this book for it's catchy rhyming and beautiful, colorful illustrations.

change your life? A time came in Vandana Sehgal's life when she was struggling with her negative mindset and was not able to find the reason of her being. She couldn't find fulfilment in work and life. In those moments she took an important decision- stand tall for a better life and to push herself beyond the limits. Giving up was not the option for her as she was not ready to accept a life filled with sufferings. She chose compliment over complaint, connection over comparison and confidence over criticism. I Love Myself has evolved from her personal learnings and her victory over the negative mindset. It aims to remind you that your life is a gift and every moment of your life holds something special. The book encourages you to believe in yourself. At the core of this book is the belief that you are the creator of your life and born with all the abilities to shape it as you wish. The real-life examples, interactive tools and simple exercises challenges you to take the ownership of your life and live it to the fullest level of fulfilment, love and gratitude.

Meet Nancy Carlson's peppy pig—a character who is full of good feelings about herself. Her story will leave little ones feeling good about themselves, too! "Little ones in need of positive reinforcement will find it here. An exuberant pig proclaims "I like me!" She likes the way she looks, and all her activities....When she makes a mistake she picks herself up and tries again." --Booklist "Wonderful in its simplicity, here's a story that will help kids feel good about themselves." -- Boston GLOBE

In rhyming text, a child expresses her self-esteem and exults in her unique identity.

At a young age, we are programmed for self-doubt by the way people speak to us, act towards us, judge us, compare us. Often we allow the feeling of "I am not good enough" to become "I am not good." Too often we judge ourselves negatively and lose self-confidence. Told through the simple story of his own life and struggles, Mr. Skillin shows you how to move on from self-doubt and make self-confidence the dominant force in your life.

When did we stop loving ourselves? Throughout their lives, women have been told to put others first and to judge themselves based on what others think. Too many women race desperately through life, trying to please others. Author Shivani once lived that life. She became an engineer, but that life didn't fulfil her. To make matters worse, she was in an unhappy relationship. Despite a successful career and her work as an international keynote speaker, Shivani, like many women, struggled with issues of self-esteem and self-love. During a trip to Nepal, Shivani realised that in order to know happiness, she had to learn to put herself first. Now a successful speaker author and mentor, she seeks to inspire every woman who has endured low self-esteem, abuse, betrayal, and more. Loving yourself is not a selfish act. By investing in your own selfworth, you can become a better mother, partner, grandmother, businesswoman, or employee. By putting yourself first, you can actually help others more effectively and joyfully. Women who truly love themselves are a great benefit and gift to their families, children, employers, and communities. The relationship you have with yourself is the longest and most important relationship you will have in your life. Are you ready to truly let go of your past? Are you ready to truly believe in yourself? Are you ready to evolve into the loving woman you've always wanted to be?

A little dog wants his bone back.

Daníela Rivera Zacarías believes everything happens for a reason, even if we cannot see it at the moment. This book began as her personal journal, her own attempt to discover her place in the world through analyzing experiences, relationships, and spiritual encounters. It evolved into a book—and then the beloved Hablando Sola brand with more than 2,100,000 Facebook likes—full of thoughtful questions and meaningful reflections that has inspired and uplifted hundreds of thousands of young people in Latin America. Now the book that has sold more than 200,000 copies in Latin America is available in English, coinciding with the brand's expansion into the United States as Talking to Myself. Zacarías guides readers on their own self-discovery journeys through simple, accessible musings and anecdotes. "How do you learn to love yourself?" she asks and then continues, "I think it's impossible if you don't know who you are." The ensuing chapters include Love, Fear, God, Art, Beauty, Depression, Happiness, and more, tackling a wide range of subjects with one goal in mind: helping readers to better know themselves, that they might better love themselves. This book comes alongside you like a big sister who's been there and done that and can impart her wisdom between warm hugs and a few laughs. It will be of special interest to the 54 million Hispanic Americans in the United States because of Zacarías's following in Latin America, but its honesty, warmth, and wisdom will give it broad appeal, particularly to young women.
