messaggio all'umanità. È una riflessione sulla storia e sul mistero del male, incarnato nei grandi sistemi totalitari del Novecento come il nazismo e il comunismo che hanno prodotto l'Olocausto, i gulag, gli stermini di massa. È la testimonianza autobiografica di un uomo che ha lottato e sconfitto il male. È un'indagine sui fondamenti etici della democrazia e dei diritti umani, sull'identità dell'Europa, potentemente plasmata dal cristianesimo fino alla frattura provocata dall'illuminismo, sulla missione della Chiesa, che custodisce in sé la memoria della storia umana. Nel primo anniversario della morte di Giovanni Paolo II, questo libro capitale viene riproposto in un'edizione tascabile, arricchita da un'introduzione dell'uomo che per decenni è stato il più stretto collaboratore di Karol Wojtyła e ha preso il suo posto sulla cattedra di Pietro: Joseph Ratzinger, Papa Benedetto XVI.

This book examines how left-wing political and cultural movements in Western Europe have considered Jews in the last two hundred years. The chapters seek to answer the following question: has there been a specific way in which the Left has considered Jewish minorities? The subject has taken various shapes in the different geographical contexts, influenced by national specificities. In tandem, this volume demonstrates the extent to which left-wing movements share common trends drawn from a collective repertoire of representations and meanings. Highlighting the different aspects of the subject matter, the chapters in this book are divided in three parts, each dedicated to a major theme: the contribution of the theorists of Socialism to the Jewish Question; Antisemitism and its representations in left-wing culture; and the perception of the Arab-Israeli conflict. Taken together, these three themes allow for a multidisciplinary analysis of the relationship between the Left and Jews from the second half of the nineteenth century to recent times.

Leading journal in the field of Renaissance and modern Latin As well as presenting articles on Neo-Latin topics, the annual journal Humanistica Lovaniensia is a major source for critical editions of Neo-Latin texts with translations and commentaries. Its systematic bibliography of Neo-Latin studies (Instrumentum bibliographicum Neolatinum), accompanied by critical notes, is the standard annual bibliography of publications in the field. The journal is fully indexed (names, mss., Neo-Latin neologisms).

In 1624 Pope Urban VIII appointed Marcello Sacchetti depositary general and secret treasurer of the Apostolic Chamber, and Giulio Sacchetti bishop of Gravina. Urban later gave Marcello the lease on the alum mines of Tolfa and raised Giulio to the cardinalate. To assert their new power, the Sacchetti began commissioning works of art. Marcello discovered and promoted leading Baroque masters, such as Pietro da Cortona and Nicolas Poussin, while Giulio purchased works from previous generations. In the eighteenth century, Pope Benedict XIV bought the collection and housed it in the Capitoline Museum, where it is now a substantial portion of the collection. By focusing on the relationship between the artists in service and the Sacchetti, this study expands our knowledge of the artists and the complexity of the processes of agency in the fulfillment of commissions. In so doing, it underlines how the Sacchetti used art to proclaim a certain public image and to promote Cardinal Giulio as a candidate to the papal throne.
