From the New Adult sensation and New York Times bestselling author of Bully and Until You. Madoe and Fallon. Two estranged teenagers playing games that push the boundaries between love and war... For the two years she's been away at boarding school, there was no word from her. New York Times and #1 ebook bestselling author Alexa Riley returns with Hold Tight, the next novella in the For You series A hotshot consultant hired to streamline Osbourne Corp. meets his match in Pandora Justice—the more she plays hard to get, the more he wants her. They say that like recognizes like, and the day I looked into her deep blues, I met my other half. Pandora Justice took over as head of security at Osbourne Corp. after her father's retirement. Eighty-hour workweeks are normal; being bossed around by handsome outsiders is not. And she doesn't like it. Not even one bit. It's amazing how easily she can lie to herself. I had to have her. Plain and simple. The first time Pandora sees Royce in the ring—all tattoos and sinew, covered in sweat—he looks at her like he's just won more than the fight. Like he won her. I won't play games with her. I'll wait, and it will kill me, but I'll do it for her. Royce's cocky grin with deep dimples makes Pandora melt. Once she wanted to smack that look off his face—now all she wants to do is kiss it. For the rest of her life. The thought of spending the rest of my life with Pandora warms the place in my chest I didn't think was alive. I've put my claim on her—she's the one, and I'm done. It's that simple. "A must-read book for everyone who cares about the future of humanity and our planet." --Dr. Ervin Laszlo, two-time Nobel Peace Prize nominee, bestselling author of Science and the Akashic Field, founder of the Club of Budapest and the Laszlo Institute "Do Unto Earth is full of empowering messages and mind-bending assertions that you won't find in science or history textbooks." --Mark Gober, author of An End to Upside Down Thinking, director of the Institute of Noetic Sciences and the School of Wholeness and Enlightenment Can you imagine receiving answers to your most thought-provoking questions about life on Earth spanning topics such as historical events to present-day environmental issues? That's what happened when author and virologologist Penelope Jean Hayes communicated with the Divine Wisdom Source whom self-introduced as "Pax," channeled through intuitive Carole Serene Borgens. What ensued was the writing of Do Unto Earth, an urgent message to humanity about planetary healing. We are advised to look to the wisdom of the First Nations peoples for guidance on harmonious living with the natural world, resource management, and the development of our innate intuitive abilities. Further, Pax says that each person's contribution to collective consciousness becomes the global power necessary to affect change for unity, peace, and environmental repair. However, what is perhaps most surprising is the multitude of future technological advancements revealed by Pax, including strong hints at the fuel solution for interstellar travel at lightspeed, the replacement for all plastics and crude oil, and what's to come in communication devices. Exploring further, author Hayes asks about our historical mysteries such as the construction of the Great Pyramids, the movement of the stones at Stonehenge, the disappearance of Amelia Earhart, the cause of magnetic anomalies in the Bermuda Triangle, the truth about Roswell in 1947, the usefulness of Dark Matter in space, and many more longstanding human curiosities—all answered in this extraordinary conversation. The wisdom within these pages is uplifting and inspirational, and it provides tangible recommendations and solutions for the biggest concerns of our time. If you read only one book this decade, let it be this one!
